AIM

The aim of the Master Programme is to graduate expertise dieticians who have abilities to conceptualize research problems in the area of human nutrition, approaches in the research problems in the field, analyze and interpret data, define individual and social problems and develop solutions.

KNOWLEDGE
Theoretical/Factual

The aim of the Master Programme is to graduate expertise dieticians who have abilities to conceptualize research problems in the area of human nutrition, approaches in the research problems in the field, analyze and interpret data, define individual and social problems and develop solutions.

SKILLS
Cognitive/Practical

Interpret the knowledge about the field by integrating the information gathered from different disciplines and formulate new knowledge.
Solve the problems faced related to the nutrition and dietetics by using research methods considering current scientific data.
Develop and deepen knowledge in the same or in a different field to the proficiency level based on nutrition and dietetics qualifications.

COMPETENCY
Ability to work independently and take responsibility

Individually undertake the responsibility of the work assigned and perform it independently in the field of nutrition and dietetics. Able to perform research, plan and undertake projects, present obtained data at scientific organisations, publish them in national/international journals.

Learning Competence

Able to identify appropriate learning material sources; to self-direct learning with effective use of materials.
Able to confirm positive attitude towards lifelong learning and associate them.

Communication and Social Competence

Communicate current developments and studies within the field to both Professional and non-professional groups systematically using written, oral and visual techniques.
Take part in projects and events together with other disciplines and health teams according to dynamics of social responsibility.

Field-based Competence

Act in accordance with the principle, ethic and social responsibility suitable for code of professional conduct for dieticians.
Take responsibility to organise, perform and evaluate of quality management and improvement of services on team and individuals activities.